THE CONNAUGHT GRILL first opened its doors on 2 May 1955. The space was richly furnished with old English lithographs adorning the walls and the tables were widely spaced providing discretion for all diners, many of whom were regulars.

In 1975 Michel Bourdin became the Head Chef of the then named Grill Room where he would stay for many years. When he arrived it is rumoured he was told to change nothing but slowly he made his mark insisting on never giving way to new fads such as Nouvelle Cuisine as the cooking found in the Grill would never go out of style.

The Connaught Grill garnered widespread renown over its proceeding 45 years as a bastion on the British restaurant scene before closing its doors in 2000.

It now returns with a contemporary creativity in both the design and cuisine underpinned by a respectful nod to its distinguished heritage. The interior design is led by John Heah with a strong focus on art and craftsmanship complete with extraordinary signature wall panels, tables and chairs made by Mira Nakashima especially for The Connaught Grill. The menu is a modern interpretation of a classic grill created under the direction of internationally renowned chef Jean-Georges Vongerichten with a few dishes taken directly from the original menu.

PTOLEMY MANN has firmly established herself as a leading chromatic minimalist artist whose craftsmanship expresses an abstract narrative.

Ptolemy has partnered with The Connaught Grill with six of her hand-dyed and woven artworks being transformed into thoughtfully-crafted menu covers.
